Red Cross Museum & Red Cross Academy vogelsang ip

To our colleagues at the IFRC & ICRC and in other National Societies

Dear friends, since 2013 Red Cross Museum and the Red Cross Academy vogelsang ip are carrying out an RCRC International PEACE Camp.

Since then every year we are inviting young RCRC people from all over the world to take part in this two weeks event which is allways taking place between end of July and end of August.

Participants are housed in the Youth-, Nature- an Environment House of our academy on the area of a former NAZI-Ordensburg in the far west of Germany, close to the Belgium and Dutch borders. For all international participants their stay in the camp is free and the camp health insurance is also covered by the German Red Cross. They only have to pay their travel expanses.

The program is divided into three parts.

study	Peace, Humanity, Human Rights and the basics of International Humanitarian Law as well as the principles and international structure of our movement.
work	Working in and around the five houses of the Red Cross Academy and the largest German Red Cross Museum (about 1.000 square meters RC exhibition).
visiting POI	The former German capital Bonn and the Museum of German History, the city of Cologne with its famous cathedral and the river rhine, the city of Aachen with a trip to Belgium. The local and regional Red Cross headquarters and the battle of the bulge area of the second world war as well as relics of the „cold war“.

Usually, participants are attending only once but from our side they may join us more often to foster and strengthen the international team. In the last 13 years we had highly motivated young RCRC attendees from more than 45 countries and from four continents.

If any of your young members between 18 and 27 years of age are interested and you would like to send them please register via the REGISTRATION FORM on the website. We are prepared to take up to two people per country. Registration process will be closed at the end of June.

If you need any more information please contact us.
